Hale's
100-100 North Spring Street.
The following very unusual values in silks and dress goods are among the best bargains Hale's has ever given. We cannot see how any woman can neglect the opportunity. Read the following items thoughtfully.

Satin Foulards 50c.
Worth 85c and $1.00.
In such things as silks Hale's stands supreme. You can reason it out for yourself. There are seven big Hale stores whose combined buying facilities are excelled by no other retail institution in the United States. That's why Hale's prices are just as low as you find in New York, itself. The Hale styles and goods are just as new and good as shown in Philadelphia, Boston, New York and Chicago.

$1.00 Black Taffeta 75c.
Black taffeta is almost as needed in the average home as table linen. Perhaps not today, but some day you will need black silk, and you will find it indeed convenient to have a little supply already on hand instead of paying a full price for it. Comes in 27-inch width, quality is strictly all silk. Comes in a crisp, good weight, the quality is rich and glossy.

85c Black Goods 50c.
We have taken a small lot of handsome black camel's hair suitings to close out at 50c per yard. Not because it isn't worth its former price, but because the quantity is small and new goods demand every inch of space. It is a weave that will be very popular this fall. Quality is strictly all wool, comes in a 48-inch width.

Black Golf Skirting 75c.
It is a dollar quality. As in the above item the reason of our reduction is the smallness of the lot. Truth to tell, we are almost wondering where to put the immense lot of fall dress goods arriving each day. Measures 56 inches wide. It is a good, heavy weight, just the thing for the coming season.

Skirt Patterns $1.85.
Worth $3.00 to $4.00.
There are fifty of them—no more, no less. Come in lengths of 3 1/2 to 4 yds. Materials are covert, cloths, camel's hair suitings, homespun, golf cloth, etc. Widths from 44 to 52 inches. We have never offered a better chance.

Murder Mystery.William Bartholin Very Badly Wanted.Son Was Seen at Mother's Cellar Grave—Statements of Two Roomers.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—Developments today in the mysterious murders of Minnie Mitchell and Mrs. Annie Bartholin led the police to redouble their efforts to locate William J. Bartholin, flaneur and the son of the two women, respectively. Important in the chain of circumstances which apparently conclusively fastens the crime on the missing man was the discovery today that Bartholin had been surprised July 20, while standing at the cellar grave of his murdered mother, by a real estate agent.

Peter Van Vlasingen, who holds a mortgage on Mrs. Bartholin's home, and who sent his agent to the Calumet property to appraise it, the afternoon of July 20, furnished the police with the information about Bartholin working on the grave of his mother. The agent called and rang the front door bell repeatedly. No one answered, and he went to the rear of the house and looked through a basement window. There he saw a man standing in one corner looking at the floor, apparently absorbed in thought. Bartholin told the man in the basement looked up and saw the agent peering in. A moment later Bartholin came to the rear door and asked the agent what he wanted. The latter replied that he wanted to see Mrs. Bartholin. Bartholin told the agent his mother was in Milwaukee, and she would not return for several days. Shortly after this conversation he was seen to leave the house, and the man who was seen at the door of the house, which was owned by Minnie Mitchell's home. The couple left together, and the girl did not return.

At the inquest today, the body of Mrs. Bartholin, which was found Saturday night crammed into the hole in the cement floor in the cellar of the house, neighbors readily identified the corpse as that of Mrs. Bartholin. The burial today of Minnie Mitchell by family members at St. Ignace church, last night, was postponed by the coroner until August 21, on the hope that additional clues to the murders may be obtained. Today it developed that Bartholin had quarreled with his mother just before she disappeared, over the question of bringing his prospective wife to live at his mother's home.

Inspector Hunt, when shown the Toledo interview of Hunter, a former lodger in the house, and who is now under arrest, denied that Bartholin had left the city to be married. The inspector further stated that Hunter was brought to this city together with Edward Smith, another roomer in the Bartholin home, who is now in Denver.

Late revelations today indicated that Bartholin may have made a careful survey of the field where Minnie Mitchell's body was found. William Walcott told the police that on Wednesday, July 20, he saw William Bartholin, who was then a fourth and State streets within a few feet of the spot where the dead body of the young woman was found. Walcott talked with Bartholin, whom he knew personally. The last he saw of him was when he boarded a north-bound State-street car. Walcott said that the murder of Minnie Mitchell took place the same night. Bartholin's presence at the scene, where the body was found later, gives color to the theory that the murder was planned in cold blood.

ROOMER FEARED MURDER.

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
DENVER (Colo.) Aug. 11.—Million R. Edwards, who formerly roomed at the home of Mrs. Anna Bartholin and for whom the police are looking for, was looking in order to learn what he may know concerning the murder of Mrs. Bartholin and Miss Minnie Mitchell, arrive here today. Edwards, who was over the Union Pacific Railroad, and registered at the Helvidere Hotel under his correct name, stated that he had been looking in order to learn what he may know concerning the murder of Mrs. Bartholin and Miss Minnie Mitchell, arrive here today. Edwards, who was over the Union Pacific Railroad, and registered at the Helvidere Hotel under his correct name, stated that he had been looking in order to learn what he may know concerning the murder of Mrs. Bartholin and Miss Minnie Mitchell, arrive here today.

"The reason I have been able to find me is that I wrote to Robert Mitchell, the brother of Minnie Mitchell, from Omaha, Nebraska, and he left Chicago so suddenly. I related to him the fact that I had become suspicious of the behavior of William Bartholin and decided that it would be unsafe for me to remain longer in Chicago. As soon as I read in an Omaha paper the story of the murder, I communicated with the brother, who was a personal friend of mine. I had been working in Chicago for the Chicago Junction Railway Company, which is connected with the Union Pacific, and he wanted me to go on my vacation when the untoward actions of Bartholin hastened my departure.

"Mrs. Bartholin had not been at the house for perhaps fifteen days before I left. William Bartholin, contrary to the usual custom, stayed about the house most of the time, and whenever I broached the subject of the welfare of his mother or her whereabouts he would immediately change the subject. Of course I had no specific grounds on which to have any information from the police, but on the night of the 21st, as I remember it, I spoke to several of the neighbors of my suspicions. On that same night, Mrs. Bartholin, the mother of the murdered girl, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, were called out by Bartholin, and I at that time I told them of what I feared, and advised them to get a detective on the trail of Bartholin. If I had known that the body of Mrs. Bartholin was then lying under the floor of the basement of the house I should certainly have informed them. Bartholin very well because he was rather uncommunicative. I know of no motive that could have prompted the murder. Since I have left Chicago I have been more or less ill and this was one of the reasons why I left Omaha. I am now in Denver for the purpose of securing employment. Since I have heard of the announcement of the arrest of Bartholin, I have suffered no little from mental anguish. I have letters here from some of the most influential men of Chicago and other prominent men, who are all of one mind. I served in the Spanish-American War and am a member of the In-

VICTORIA (B. C.) Aug. 11.—[Exclusive dispatch.] Some months ago, a Mrs. Wolfe, the wife of a missionary, was cruelly murdered by natives of New Hebrides under most atrocious circumstances. When reports of the murder reached headquarters, the German steamship Tanglin was dispatched with troops to wreak vengeance on the murderous natives, and just before the Mowera sailed from Brisbane, the Tanglin arrived there with news that the expedition had accomplished its purpose in the most terrible way.

The avengers of Mrs. Wolfe marched inland, guided by a renegade native, and surprised the village and slaughtered the whole tribe. The only survivor was the only survivor of his people, was also put to death, making the total number of women and children killed 130.

News was received from Daru, British New Guinea, of the massacre of seven British subjects by Tugeresse head-hunters. The Dutch authorities and the government of the commonwealth were organizing a joint punitive expedition against the Tugeresse villages.

VICTORIA (B. C.) Aug. 11.—Advice received by the Australian Government from Australia of the terrible drouth in New South Wales and Queensland which has devastated the sheep ranches of that section of the South-eastern coast, and the consequent difficulty, and men formerly considered wealthy have been compelled to seek employment. Samuel McCaughey, the Sheep King of Australia, lost over a million sheep of his herd of a million and a quarter, and other large breeders have been equally unfortunate. In one district the residents erected an arch of sheep skulls on the occasion of the death of one of the Cabinet ministers.

The Kenniffs, the New Zealand outlaws, have been captured after a chase of three months, which cost the government $20,000. These brothers, having committed a murder, took to the woods. Two police officers who pursued them were killed, their bodies burned, and the ashes placed in the saddlebags of their horses with a note, stating that other pursuers would be treated similarly. The horses wandered back to the police camp, and the hunt was continued with renewed energy. The outlaws, who were surprised in their camp, their horses shot, so that they had to take to the woods on foot. One stumbled and fell as he was running, and was captured without any arms. The other, who was surrounded and surrendered. During their outlaws, they lived off the residents of the districts through which they passed, and on one occasion visited a village and robbed the stores.

The work of wiping out the natives of the South Sea Islands goes on. If the reports in the Australian papers are to be relied on.

VICTORIA, Aug. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Owing to sheep, cattle and horses having perished by thousands, ranchers, many of whom were regarded as millionaires, a few months ago, are ruined. Even Samuel McCaughey, the largest individual sheep owner in the world, whose famous Riverina flock numbered 1,250,000, has been staggered by the terrible drouth. He has lost over a million head of sheep, and his great wool business is a mere memory. The small men have been chased from their lands, and are losing their sheep, the banks and loan companies are foreclosing on their lands to secure themselves for advances made during the good times.

The ruin of the United States Ship Building Company and it was made known to the government for assistance, and have invited the members of the Cabinet to drive through the country and see for themselves the extent of the ruin and devastation. A few showmen have fallen recently, and people are hoping for a break in the drouth, but as yet no general rain has occurred, and in many districts conditions are becoming intolerable.

Lewis Nixon Secures Purchase of the United States Syndicate.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

WILMINGTON (Del.) Aug. 11.—The ship building plant of the Harlan and Hollingsworth Company, covering fifty acres of ground, was sold tonight to the United States Ship Building Company, a syndicate in which is represented the building plants of Lewis Nixon at Elizabethport, N. J., the Neafie and Levin Company of Philadelphia; the San Francisco Iron Works; the New York Ship Building Company; and several other minor ship building plants throughout the country for a consideration of $1,500,000.

Lewis Nixon is one of the vice-presidents of the United States Ship Building Company and it was made known through his instrumentality that the syndicate was formed looking to the purchase of the several shipyards named. The deal was carried through by Messrs. Scott & Company of this city who, it is said, have had the matter under way for more than one year. The Harlan & Hollingsworth Company has been in existence sixty years and it was the first ship building establishment to turn out an iron steamship of the United States, and since that time the company has built vessels of all parts of the globe. The company now employs a non average of 2000 men and has done considerable government work.

Samuel McCaughey, the Sheep King of Australia, lost over a million sheep of his herd of a million and a quarter, and other large breeders have been equally unfortunate. In one district the residents erected an arch of sheep skulls on the occasion of the death of one of the Cabinet ministers.

The Kenniffs, the New Zealand outlaws, have been captured after a chase of three months, which cost the government $20,000. These brothers, having committed a murder, took to the woods. Two police officers who pursued them were killed, their bodies burned, and the ashes placed in the saddlebags of their horses with a note, stating that other pursuers would be treated similarly. The horses wandered back to the police camp, and the hunt was continued with renewed energy. The outlaws, who were surprised in their camp, their horses shot, so that they had to take to the woods on foot. One stumbled and fell as he was running, and was captured without any arms. The other, who was surrounded and surrendered. During their outlaws, they lived off the residents of the districts through which they passed, and on one occasion visited a village and robbed the stores.

The work of wiping out the natives of the South Sea Islands goes on. If the reports in the Australian papers are to be relied on.

VICTORIA, Aug. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Owing to sheep, cattle and horses having perished by thousands, ranchers, many of whom were regarded as millionaires, a few months ago, are ruined. Even Samuel McCaughey, the largest individual sheep owner in the world, whose famous Riverina flock numbered 1,250,000, has been staggered by the terrible drouth. He has lost over a million head of sheep, and his great wool business is a mere memory. The small men have been chased from their lands, and are losing their sheep, the banks and loan companies are foreclosing on their lands to secure themselves for advances made during the good times.

The ruin of the United States Ship Building Company and it was made known to the government for assistance, and have invited the members of the Cabinet to drive through the country and see for themselves the extent of the ruin and devastation. A few showmen have fallen recently, and people are hoping for a break in the drouth, but as yet no general rain has occurred, and in many districts conditions are becoming intolerable.

BIG SHIPYARD ABSORBED.

Lewis Nixon Secures Purchase of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Plant by United States Syndicate.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.

WILMINGTON (Del.) Aug. 11.—The ship building plant of the Harlan and Hollingsworth Company, covering fifty acres of ground, was sold tonight to the United States Ship Building Company, a syndicate in which is represented the building plants of Lewis Nixon at Elizabethport, N. J., the Neafie and Levin Company of Philadelphia; the San Francisco Iron Works; the New York Ship Building Company; and several other minor ship building plants throughout the country for a consideration of $1,500,000.

Lewis Nixon is one of the vice-presidents of the United States Ship Building Company and it was made known through his instrumentality that the syndicate was formed looking to the purchase of the several shipyards named. The deal was carried through by Messrs. Scott & Company of this city who, it is said, have had the matter under way for more than one year. The Harlan & Hollingsworth Company has been in existence sixty years and it was the first ship building establishment to turn out an iron steamship of the United States, and since that time the company has built vessels of all parts of the globe. The company now employs a non average of 2000 men and has done considerable government work.

ations on pottery imported. Secretary Shaw today said that this question was not a new one. Charges of undervaluation on pottery had been made from time to time, covering a number of years, and when made by responsible parties they always had been in-vestigated.

At present, the department has agents at work on the other side looking into the market price of pottery, and it is possible that an increase in prices of certain kinds and qualities may be necessary. At present, there is no evidence in the possession of any government showing that it has been defrauded out of large sums by pottery undervaluations.

FRANCE'S SERIOUS PERIL.

Special Ambassador Curry Says Old Quarrel Over Separation of Church and State Endangering Republicanism.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.

PARIS, Aug. 11.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. J. L. M. Curry, Ambassador Extraordinary of the United States on a special mission to Spain, left Paris today for America. In an interview he said:

"It is a singular and significant coincidence that the same question, that of schools, should simultaneously divide the minds of the countries in Spain, France and England. In the struggle is another form of the old quarrel between the church and the state. I don't like to see a man or a nation so divided. France cannot afford to suffer a diminution of her forces. A religious exile is as much to be pitied as a political exile. The present situation in France is particularly distressing. Half the measures of Minister Combes seem only to irritate the people. He has ordered 2500 schools to be closed and has diminished the riches of the country by expropriating the exiles of 20,000 hard-working people. Yet, when his work will have been finished, even the thin edge of the wedge of separation of church and state will have been introduced and the problem will have been left where it was.

"France has too many titles and weakens itself by tinkering with religious questions. Instead of disposing of the religious question by a simple abolishing concordats and let the church and state remain separate. Frenchmen may laugh at the present pretensions; Napoleon III was laughable when he tried to do so. It is bad policy for a republic to keep irritating the people. Someone may arrive."

CHIEF AUGUSTINIAN COMING.

Father Rodriguez Leaves Rome for New York—Talks of Changes in the Philippines.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

ROME, Aug. 11.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Thomas Rodriguez, general of the Augustinians and supreme head of the whole order, which is very powerful at Rome, will leave Rome today for New York. Father Rodriguez will pay his first visit to the United States. Origin of the Augustinians received a representative of the Associated Press here today with great excitement. He has been known for his journey to the United States was attributed to an intention to send American Augustinians to replace the Spanish members of the order now in the Philippines. Father Rodriguez, when questioned on this matter, said nothing but that he had been decided.

"Nothing can be done," said Father Rodriguez, while the negotiations are in progress. He said that the United States must admit it to be strange that the Augustinians should be asked to expel the friars from the Philippines. It should require this to be done by the United States, and the United States must be prepared to do so. The Augustinians are not material and morally.

The truth is that the friars are not hated by a majority of the Philippine, but only by that faction which wanted to get rid of them in order to be left without curb or law.

"With regard to the substitution of American for Spanish Augustinians in the islands, the difficulty is that while the friars of our order in the Philippines are at one time numbered over 200, and even now amount to 125, those in the United States, who are mostly at Villanova, near Philadelphia, number only about 100, and of them scarcely ten could be spared."

Build Up the Forests.

The decrease in forest area is a matter of concern. To meet the demand for railroad ties, posts, etc., when the present forests are depleted, it is suggested that the government should encourage the planting of trees. The planting and culture of the hardy catalpa promises to be a profitable business. The trees grow for posts in seven to ten years, and for ties and lumber in fifteen to twenty years. There is also a device for growing and need but little attention after the first few years. Railroad engineers testify that as post timber they are superior to white oak.

EVERARD B. WILTON, who lives in Shoreview Park, near Jamaica, L. I., has substituted the windmill for the servant girl. His windmill generates steam, which is used to run the house. Cooking is done by electricity and the cradle is rocked by the same power.

The windmill is geared by an endless chain to a small dynamo in the cellar of the Wilton residence. The dynamo is connected with a number of small storage batteries. By another device of the inventor the dynamo stops work when the batteries are charged to their fullest capacity.

As soon as the capacity of the storage batteries is lowered the dynamo starts again. There is also a device for the regulation of the dynamo, no matter how fierce a gale blows outside, it keeps the light at a steady brightness by the pressing of a button. Every door in the house can be made to swing largely false. We know that children vary enormously in their vitality.

Some are able to endure accidents and diseases which others are quite unable to stand. Two great elements enter into vitality—what one gets from one's parents and then the way one lives. What one gets from one's parents is fixed; how one lives early in life is also fixed. The only element that is within our control—and this not wholly or always—is the daily life.
Many elements enter into this. Good, strong, healthy muscles are an important element.

GOOD CIRCULATION NEEDED.
Some people overdo this matter. It is common to find those who have taken vibratory exercises or exercises of the "rigidity school" so overdone as to be much worse off than they were before they began. The power of life has been enfeebled rather than built up by the exercises which are of this character. Good digestion is another essential element. This in turn is dependent upon several other factors. Good, steady circulation of blood; strong, regular heart is also necessary. This will enable a man to work without cold feet and hot head, for this holds the circulation steadily in balance even under conditions of severe, long strain.

BENEFIT OF PROPER WEIGHT.
Good weight is also necessary. The extremes are both bad to the standpoint of vitality. A man who is too fat and a man who is too thin are equally prone to succumb to an unfavorable environment. The fat man is wasting a tremendous amount of energy carrying around the extra weight. His heart has a tremendous burden. The blood has to be forced through a great mass of unnecessary tissue.

INFLUENCE OF THOUGHT.
Wholesome thinking is necessary. A man who is constantly thinking about things that are the matter with him creates the evil he fears. It is a well-known fact that constant direction of the thoughts to any part of the body will alter the circulation of blood in that part. A man who is all the time thinking about his liver will, other things being equal, have more trouble than a man who does not. The thinking world is just as real a part of us as the world of matter, and the man can no more be healthy and all the time be thinking unhealthy thoughts than he can be strong and vigorous permanently and be living a life of direct violation of physical laws.

POINT OF MAXIMUM EFFICIENCY.
This matter of vitality, then, resolves itself into a great number of questions. For each one of us there is a point of maximum efficiency in life. There is a certain balance between rest, food and exercise which means that we can accomplish more in the world than we can in any other way. We all know that a man who works fourteen hours a day does less work than the one who works twelve, and in turn less than the one who works ten, for the rate decreases rapidly when we pass the maximum. To find this point of maximum efficiency is also to find the point of greatest vitality. The two are a beautifully tied together. We wish to be most alive; we wish every drop of blood in us, every nerve, every muscle cell, every brain cell living at its keenest level of efficiency. We wish the highest intensity of the vital processes constantly going. We wish to have the body lining up with life, and then the joys of life and the work of life will go on in the greatest and most wholesome stream.

WORKING TOO LONG.
Many men do less work because they work too long. They do not use their minds as to get the most out of them. They may be making drudge horses out of themselves when really they are race horses. When really they are race horses, a short period of work will do more than the long period of slow, heavy, plodding work. We all vary in this respect, and "what is one man's meat is another man's poison." There is only one way to do, and that is to take hold of these elements one at a time and to bring one's self up to the point of highest efficiency. Many men can easily double their total output of work by attention to these matters, and in doubling the total output of work they are multiplying the ease with which they work. Life should not be a steady grind of unintermittent labor.
It should be filled with the joy of work. It should be filled with the consciousness of power, and a man should go to his work in the same kind of spirit that the boy goes to his play, because it is the most interesting thing in the world to do. A man who is thoroughly healthy, who is full of vitality, who is living at the point of highest efficiency, who is working under the conditions of maximum efficiency, will be the man who does his work in that spirit.

LEARNING TO DO SEVERE WORK.
When men are broken down it is a common thing for them to go to Europe, where they are taken care of,
are given rest, exercises, massage, baths, until their health is restored, so far as they could go, but it is not nearly as good as it is for a man to secure health and vigor under normal conditions of work. It has been my privilege during past years to have the care of a number of men who had broken down, who were unable to continue their work. Life unusual power and ability. It has been my problem not merely to get these men well, but
to discover for them this point of greatest vitality; to find for them that balance between the various kinds of activity in their lives, so that they could do the greatest work, so that they could live at its highest intensity. This has meant not simply the exercise and
rest and bathing which is customary,
but has meant in addition to these things the gradual addition of severe work until before they left my care
they were working under full pressure, carrying out heavy duty programmes
with ease and joy. This is to my mind the important work that needs to be done for all those who are not at present living under the conditions of greatest vitality.

SCOPE OF FUTURE ARTICLES.
In succeeding articles I shall attempt so far as it is possible to do so in print, to suggest some of the methods which have been used. I am perfectly aware that there is the element of personal direction in this, which cannot be given in print, and that this element of personal direction is really the most important of all. On the other hand, I am equally sure that there are very large numbers of men who are doing largely the same thing in the world, the ease with which they can do it, and their vitality following the same simple principles which are contained here, and the reason for my confidence in this matter is that so many others have already done it. In my next article I shall discuss the importance of "Good Thinking."

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN MUSCLES AND VIGOR.
The relation between the muscles and
vigor is a matter of great importance.
It is a relation between the muscles
and the power of the body. It is not

privilege during past years to have the
care of a number of men who had
broken down, who were unable to continue their work. Life unusual power

and ability. It has been my problem
not merely to get these men well, but
to discover for them this point of greatest vitality; to find for them that balance between the various kinds of activity in their lives, so that they could
do the greatest work, so that they could live at its highest intensity. This has meant not simply the exercise and
rest and bathing which is customary,
but has meant in addition to these
things the gradual addition of severe
work until before they left my care
they were working under full pressure,
carrying out heavy duty programmes
with ease and joy. This is to my mind
the important work that needs to be done for all those who are not at pre-

est vitality.

AND VIGOR.
The relation between the muscles and
vigor is a matter of great importance.
It is a relation between the muscles
and the power of the body. It is not nearly as close as it is for a man to secure health and vigor under normal conditions of work. It has been my privilege during past years to have the care of a number of men who had
broken down, who were unable to continue their work. Life unusual power

COME UP FROM THE BEACHES!

Republican residents of the city—anti-Gage voters—who are temporarily absent at beaches, will not be doing their duty to themselves, to the party and to the State unless they make a point of coming back to their homes today to vote at the primaries.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Address by Dr. Walker.

Rev. Dr. H. H. Walker will address a meeting at the hall of the Volunteers of America, on East First street, between Main and Los Angeles, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Good Property.

It is reported that a bid of $72,000 has been filed with the proper representatives, by C. C. Granger, of Daniel Schick property, 72204 feet, on the southwest corner of North Spring and Franklin streets, and that it is improved with a single story brick building, occupied by the London Clothing Company, and it is considered well worth the price offered.

Released Twenty Prisoners.

Under the operation of the secular law passed at the last session of the Legislature, twenty prisoners shall be released from jail and prisons on the Monday preceding the expiration of their terms, unless the terms expire on Monday, and the law provides that the prisoners be given their liberty at the time to vote at today's primary elections.

Saloon Must Close.

The City Attorney yesterday declared that the saloon at Elton, a popular spot for today's primary election day, comes within the provisions of the statute which provides that saloons must be closed on election days. The Chief has therefore ordered that all saloons be shut up today until after the polls are closed for the day. Inspections have been given to the police to strictly enforce the law.

Cars Transferred.

The damage suit of John Tondy vs. Copper King Mining Company (Ltd.) has been transferred from the Superior Court of Fresno county to the United States Circuit Court in this city. The plaintiff is suing for $10,000 damages for injuries received in falling sixty-five feet down a shaft in the company's mine in Fresno county, where he was taken to the Police Station last night and booked as a suspect and locked up. The arrest was made by Patrolman C. E. Dixon, who resides on West Second street and when he returned home from the Police Station last night he heard a noise in an unoccupied house next to his residence. Upon investigation he found the two men there and as they could give no satisfactory explanation of their conduct he locked them up and will investigate their record.

Are They Burglars?

Barney Neillman and James Johnson, at least that is the names they gave, were taken to the Police Station last night and booked as suspects and locked up. The arrest was made by Patrolman C. E. Dixon, who resides on West Second street and when he returned home from the Police Station last night he heard a noise in an unoccupied house next to his residence. Upon investigation he found the two men there and as they could give no satisfactory explanation of their conduct he locked them up and will investigate their record.

Camera Club Fete.

The moonlight fete of the Camera Club at Westlake Park next Friday night promises to be a success. The Committee of Arrangements is making every effort to make the evening at the Camera Club rooms and made satisfactory progress in the arrangement of the fete. The appearance of a floating booth for the refreshments, and of boats and lanterns, and of a large number of lanterns will lead to the lake the appearance of a Venetian water fete. Club members are at liberty to invite as many friends as they may wish. There are heard of elaborate preparations for a series of moonlight photographs to be taken during the evening and later shown to the club through the medium of lantern slides.

Several Small Burglaries.

The residence of Lyman Hoffman, No. 125 West Adams street, was burglarized Sunday night during the absence of the family. Every room was searched but the thieves, who were evidently looking for money, found only 15 cents. D. Antognello of No. 164 Macy street reported a similar burglary yesterday. His house was entered by a burglar who was seen to enter the house by the back door, but nothing of value was taken. E. R. B. of No. 127 North Main street notified the police that his main door had been burglarized and his gold watch stolen.

FARE ISLAND ELECTIONS.

CORONADO, Aug. 11.—The Land-throwing elections in the Fares Islands resulted in a complete ministerial victory. The campaign turned on the sale of the Deane West Indies to the United States, and the government captured all opposition wards. Other wards will hold elections next month.

A good ministerial majority is confidently expected. The treaty will be taken up soon after the opening of the Legislature. At the last session those opposed to the sale of the islands had a majority of three in the Landthrowing.

TAMALE MAN BURIED.

Big Load of Hay Overturned His Cart and Six Men Worked Several Minutes to Uncover and Rescue Him.

Ed. Butenschon, who conducts a tamale wagon on Main street, near First, was buried on that street last night with his wagon and all its contents. He was not covered with earth, but so far as his ability to extricate himself was concerned he might as well have been yards under ground, for twenty minutes or more he was pinned under his wagon, wallowing in chili con carne, onions, tamales, broken eggs, dishwater, gasoline, butter, pieces of plates; in short, in the entire contents of his wagon. When rescued, he was uninjured, but his load of victuals was spoiled.

Frank Marryave, who lives at No. 242 South Avenue 18, Wrightsiding a huge load of loose alfalfa north on Main street, and as he approached the tamale wagon he pulled him out to let a street car pass his wagon. In doing so he took into consideration the fact that the load of hay extended far out over the edge of the wagon, and in pulling his team toward the curb the side of his load struck the tamale wagon and upset it. At the same instant a street car was in the wagon at the time the load of alfalfa shifted and tumbled upon the overturned wagon, almost completely burying it. The tamale man was in the wagon at the time and went over with the wreck. Fortunately he did not then have his gasoline stove and address book.

His cries brought a crowd to his assistance, and six men worked hard to release him. Finally they got him out injured. The driver of the hay wagon, who was injured or not, was later brought back to the scene of the accident by a policeman. He readily gave his name and address, and declined to settle for the damage done.

His argument, which was convincing to the police, was that the vehicle, was that a tamale wagon is not within the meaning of the law, that it has no right on the streets over other vehicles, and if it is not considered in any other light than as an obstruction on the streets.
